Haddenham Acoustic Concerts

First Saturday of the month
October 2016 to June 2017

- October 1 Les Barker (plus Saul Bailey)
Probably the best writer of parodies that has ever been heard
- November 5 Jim Causley (plus Jimmy Grayburn)
A deep rich voice with a relaxed and playful stage presence
- December 3 John Spiers (plus Watling Street)
John plays melodeon brilliantly with an easy-going folk club banter
- January 7 Granny's Attic (plus The Barber Sisters)
"Great tunes, great arrangements, great energy" (Jon Boden)
- February 4 Saul Rose & James Delarre (plus Sophie Crawford)
Fiddle & melodeon plus vocals that produces an exciting and energetic display with all the subtleties of traditional music
- March 4 Tom McConville (plus Rosie & Rowan)
"One of the greatest fiddle players I've ever heard— A true master" (Seth Lakeman). Not a bad singer either!
- April 1 Greg Russell & Ciaran Algar (plus Ben Moss)
BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award winners in 2013
- May 6 Barry Goodman (plus Iona Fyfe)
Barry sings songs from the English tradition and contemporary sources accompanied by melodeon, concertina or guitar
- June 3 Dave Burland (plus tbc)
Guitarist with a uniquely relaxed singing style

The Concerts take place in the Walter Rose Room of Haddenham Village Hall, Haddenham, Bucks, HP17 8EE, and are hosted by Kitty Vernon and start around 8:45pm. Admission, which also includes entry to the Ceilidh, is £12.

The support acts are young musicians and singers introduced to us mainly through New Roots. They are folk music's future and would welcome your support.
